SALESIAN REFLECTION

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (11/6/2022)

Today Jesus reminds us that there is life after death - a resurrected life that will transform our whole existence.

Belief in life after death affects the way we live here and now - as we heard recounted for us in today's first reading from the Old Testament. Anyone who is baptized has been given a share in the very life of God, a life that does not end. When we choose to live by that grace, we choose to live and love as Jesus did.

Jesus is the model for graced human living, because he is both God and human. That is the gift we now share. He shows us how to live our new life in a way that gives witness to our dignity - a dignity that has been given to us by the merciful grace of God.

In today's second reading, St. Paul summarizes how a believer lives - a believer's life is a life ruled by God's love and the constancy shown by Jesus. Jesus knew that his Father loved him. He returned this love by doing his Father's will.

That is how we are urged to live - trusting in God's love for us and making every effort to understand our Father's will for us today and then choosing to do his will to the best of our ability. Living this way each day with the strength of God's grace is how we can respond to the gift of God's life within us. It also prepares us for the fullness of life promised us when we die.

St. Paul's prayer can be our prayer: Lord Jesus, you have shown us our Father's love for us. ...continued in the next column

Console our hearts each day and strengthen them for every good work and word. May the life you share with us make us fully human and bring us to the fullness of life you have promised in heaven.

Executive Director of the De Sales Spirituality Center

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains
Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead.

One does not register in a parish community for the sole purpose of getting married, but to be a full, active participating member of the faith community.

Parish Ministries

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY We offer bereavement support groups twice a year in the Spring and Fall. Dates and times are announced and printed in the parish bulletin. Call Suzanne Jenkins any time if you have questions or if you would like to participate in one of the groups 609-675-8630.

GOOD SAMARITAN If you are interested in becoming a volunteer please contact Janet Kerney @ 267-342-2756. Parish volunteers are available to help others in a variety of ways: rides to Sunday Mass, doctor's appointments, shopping/banking, errands. Also visits: hospitals, nursing homes, your home, brief respite care. Let us know your need and we will try to provide for you. All requests must go through the Captain of the week. Please do not call our volunteers directly. To use our services you must be fully vaccinated. We are unable to transport wheelchairs. This week's captain is Sister Nancy. Her number is 609-408-2549.

Promotes a spirit of fellowship among adults 50 years and older. During our gatherings, we enjoy lunch and varied programs. (Bring your own brown bag lunch. Desserts and beverages are provided). The group welcomes everyone age 50 and over, regardless of faith or parish affiliation. The group meets in Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish Hall on the last Wednesday of the month from 12:00 - 2:00PM from September through May. JUST FRIENDS looks forward to welcoming you at our next meeting! Join Us! No membership necessary. Please notice the time change. Planning your Estate ~ Have you ever considered leaving part of your estate to the Church? There are several options available that you might find attractive from an income, tax savings, retirement, or inheritance point of view. To learn more about how these programs might work for you and your family, please contact Marie Turco (609)884-5312, ext. 101 for more info.

Pre-Planning: A Sharing of Faith ~ While we focus on living healthy, long lives, the inevitable can't be ignored. We are all destined to cross over to the eternal life that God has planned for us. By pre-planning your Catholic burial you are sharing your faith with those left behind. Many benefits come with pre-planning: your wishes are known, peace of mind, elimination of stress, & payment plans. Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org or call 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375).

Understanding the Mass

Part 6

The Concluding Rites

Before delving into the Concluding Rites of the Mass, we need to finish the Rite of Communion. We left off with returning to your place after receiving Holy Communion and taking a moment to give thanks to God for Gift of His Son and the salvation He won for us.

Moment of Silence

The General Instructions remind us here of the need for moments of silence in the Liturgy. As it does after the readings and homily, the Missal calls for the priest and the faithful to “spend time praying privately.” A song may be sung at this point, but the same instructions expect that it sung by the whole assembly together as a sign of the communion they now share.

The Prayer After Communion

After a suitable time of private prayer, the priest rises and invites the people to pray. According to the Missal, this prayer has a specific purpose—to pray that the Communion we have just received may bear fruit in our lives, in the Church and for the world.

The Concluding Rites

Announcements

Here is the appropriate time for making announcements. If there are relatively few, the people may remain standing or the presider may ask them to be seated. Announcements should NOT be made as part of the Rite of Communion. However, they may be made before the beginning of Mass.

The Final Blessing

Again, the priest greets the people and the deacon invites them to bow down for the blessing. This blessing may be simple—the Sign of the Cross or it may be enriched on special occasions with a longer solemn prayer of blessing or a four-fold invocation before the Sign of the Cross.

The Dismissal

After the priest makes the Sign of the Cross in blessing, the deacon announces one of several forms of the dismissal—in Latin “Ite Missa est!” Literally, “Go forth, the Mass is ended.” The Latin word “missa” gives us the name for whole Eucharistic Liturgy, the Mass. The other dismissals help us to understand that— “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord” and “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.” The sense here is that we, having heard the Word of the Lord and received the Body and Blood of the Lord, are sent on mission. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that “the liturgy in which the mystery of salvation is accomplished concludes with the sending forth (mission) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God’s will in their daily lives” (CCC 1332). Sharing the mission of Christ, we are sent to use our God-given abilities to evangelize, to comfort and to help build up the Kingdom of God.

Reverence of the Altar

The priest and deacon then moves to the altar and kiss it. This is done, as at the beginning of Mass, out of reverence for the presence of Christ who is himself the altar of sacrifice. The practice derives from the ancient Roman tradition of kissing the entrance to the pagan temples and the Roman family tradition of kissing the table when they sat down to eat. The Church “baptized” these practices by reverencing the altar, which contained a relic of a saint, with a kiss.

Concluding Procession

The priest and other liturgical ministers then gather at the foot of the altar, they genuflect in unison, and then follow the cross in procession to the outside of the church—leading the faithful in the mission to glorify the Lord with their lives.

The Importance of Sacred Music

"The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as a combination of sacred music and words, it forms a necessary or integral part of being profaned or desecrated. The Blessed Sacrament is kept in the tabernacle for two purposes: in order that the sick may receive Holy Communion, especially if they are dying; and also for private prayer—that any of us may go before the Blessed Sacrament for a time of prayer.

"Address . . . one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart." "He who sings prays twice" (Eph 5:19; St. Augustine, En. in Ps. 72,1:PL 36,914; cf. Col 3:16).

– Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1156

There is a great need in most American parishes to rekindle the appreciation for sacred music and communal singing. Some cultures, like the Welsh and African American, take great pride in their choral tradition. Lay people can have a great impact on the liturgy by volunteering to join the choir, serve as a cantor, or play an instrument—we are especially in need of young people willing to learn how to play the church organ. The pipe organ has pride of place among all instruments and without competent organists, the Church will lose its liturgical voice.

The liturgy requires authenticity, so the use of recorded music is not permitted. Sacred Music needs to be the product of human activity—by the use of voices and instruments.

Sacred Music is NOT a performance. In many churches the music ministry is located at the front in the hopes of encouraging the assembly to sing. However for too many, it is seen as a concert that is to be enjoyed not an aid to their participation in singing.

The Tabernacle

In the Old Testament, the People of God wandered in the desert for 40 years. During that time, God made his dwelling among them in a tent or tabernacle. The word tabernacle literally means "dwelling." And so it is in the church that the tabernacle is the place where Christ dwells in the Eucharist.

rist.

The tabernacle must be made of solid and opaque material. It must also have a locked door. In the Diocese of Camden it must also be secured by an alarm. All of this is to prevent the Eucharist from being profaned or desecrated. The Blessed Sacrament is kept in the tabernacle for two purposes: in order that the sick may receive Holy Communion, especially if they are dying; and also for private prayer—that any of us may go before the Blessed Sacrament for a time of prayer.

Liturgical Colors

The liturgical life of the Church involves the use of color to signify the meaning of particular seasons and/or celebrations. Green is worn during Ordinary Time (those weeks that are counted). Purple, a sign of penitence, is worn during Advent and Lent as the Church prepares for the important Solemnities of Christmas and Easter. It may also be worn for funerals and on days of penance. White is worn during the Christmas and Easter Seasons and on other feast days that honor Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints who are not martyrs. Red is worn at celebrations of the Passion of Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Cross and on the feast of Saints who are martyrs. Black may also be used on the occasion of Masses for the Dead and funerals.

Incense

The use of incense in ancient religious rites is well documented—to ward off evil spirits and to create a cloud of "mystery." The use of incense in the Catholic liturgy is an adaptation of these ancient uses. For Catholics, incense purifies and blesses the persons and objects that are incensed. At the same time the holy smoke lifts up to heaven and takes with it the prayers of God's people.

Candles

The use of candles in the liturgy was both practical (the need for light) and symbolic—as candles add beauty and solemnity to the Mass. They represent Christ, the Light of the World and our call to bring that light to others. They also serve as a symbol of our prayers—who hasn't lit a candle for a loved one?

"Volunteers in Medicine" provides free healthcare for our neighbors in need and relies on volunteers to man the clinic. The Clinic is located at 423 No. Route 9 in CMCH. We need volunteers to assist with scheduling, patient registration, nursing, the Thrift Store and Community Garden. Want to know more? If you can spare a few hours a week please contact Anne Marie at volunteercmc@vimsj.org or 609-778-2707.
